

- ③ Clarifiers - these structures allow solids present in the discharge from the Oxidation Ditches to settle and be removed. A clear effluent from the clarifiers flows over the weirs and onto the Polishing Clarifiers. The settled sludge is either pumped back into the Oxidation Ditches or to the Digesters for further processing. There are four clarifiers at the Gallatin Wastewater Treatment Plant with a combined volume of approximately 3.75 million gallons.